FTC Matter No. 1723195

Dear Ms. Scava:

The Federal Trade Commission ("FTC") has issued the attached Civil Investigative Demand ("CID") asking for testimony as part of a non-public investigation. Our purpose is to determine whether Fully Accountable, the Group A Entities, or the Group B Entities, each as defined in the attached CID, and related entities and individuals, have made or participated in making, in any respect, false, misleading, or unsubstantiated representations in connection with the marketing of consumer products, in violation of Sections 5 and 12 of the Federal Trade Commission Act ("FTC Act"), 15 U.S.C. §§ 45 and 52, or have engaged in deceptive or unfair acts or practices by charging or participating in the charging, in any respect, for consumer products without consumers' authorization, in violation of Section 5 of the FTC Act, and whether Commission action to obtain monetary relief would be in the public interest. Please read the attached documents carefully. Here are a few important points we would like to highlight:

1. Contact FTC counsel, Harris Senturia (216-263-3420; hsenturia@ftc.gov) as soon as possible to schedule an initial meeting to be held within 14 days. You can meet in person or by phone to discuss any questions you have, including whether there are changes to how you comply with the CID that would reduce your cost or burden while still giving the FTC the information it needs. Please read the attached documents for more information about that meeting.
2. You must continue to suspend any routine procedures for electronic or paper document destruction, and you must preserve all paper or electronic documents that are in any way relevant to this investigation, even if you believe the documents are protected from discovery by privilege or some other reason.
3. The FTC will use information you provide in response to the CID for the purpose of investigating violations of the laws the FTC enforces. We will not disclose the information under the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. § 552. We may disclose the information in response to a valid request from Congress, or other civil or criminal federal, state, local, or foreign law enforcement agencies for their official law enforcement purposes. The FTC or other agencies may use and disclose your response in any federal, state, or foreign civil or criminal proceeding, or if required to do so by law. However, we will not publicly disclose your information without giving you prior notice.

4. Please read the attached documents closely. They contain important information about where and when the company's designee must appear to give testimony.

Please contact FTC counsel as soon as possible to set up an initial meeting. We appreciate your cooperation.

Very truly yours,

Donald S. Clark
Secretary of the Commission
